Toronto, ON – Today, Headstones, Moist, Sloan and The Tea Party announce new and rescheduled dates for the Saints And Sinners Tour. The tour is scheduled to kick off in Victoria, BC on November 3, 2021, with the last stop in Rama, ON, on November 27, 2021. The tour promises many much-needed nights of incredible rock music for fans across the country. Penticton's date will remain the same on the tour on Saturday, November 6, 2021 at the South Okanagan Events Centre (SOEC).

With over a dozen Gold and Platinum certified albums, hundreds of thousands of concert tickets sold and some of the most incredible hits among the line-up, the tour will be a once in a lifetime rock music spectacle. Every night will be a new experience for fans with a rotating, surprise line-up for each show and each band could not be more excited about hitting the road on this amazing tour.

“Canada! Are you ready for some maximum rock ‘n’ roll? All the bands have been talking and we cannot wait to see our fans for a kick ass night of rock! Our legendary buddies Sloan are now onboard and we are excited to get out and make some long overdue noise with you all,” - Jeff Martin of The Tea Party.

The Saints and Sinners Tour is proud to be partnering with the Unison Benevolent Fund and the PLUS1 campaign - with $1 from each ticket sold from the tour going towards relief programs, financial assistance, and mental health counselling to the Canadian music community.

Information on VIP packages will be available soon and all ticket information can be found here.
