Wednesday - Saturday, Until May 17

13 Going on 30 Youth Group Exhibition

When: 10:30am-4:30pm

Where: The Leir House Cultural Centre, 220 Manor Park, Gallery II

Why: The future belongs to the next generation and whatever it may hold is for them to define. The PDCAC has invited local artists aged 13 to 30 to show us what art means to them to give us a glimpse into the future of art.

Cost: By Donation

Wednesday - Saturday, Until May 17

The Shattered Canvas: Solo Exhibition

When: 10:30am-4:30pm

Where: The Leir House Cultural Centre, 220 Manor Park, Gallery I

Why: The Shattered Canvas: Fragments of Beauty in Unexpected Places is a solo exhibition by Nancy Dearborn. We sometimes find ourselves on an unexpected journey, unsure of where it may lead. In the uncertainty there are fragments of beauty to discover. As we focus on the beauty around us, we just may find ourselves sowing seeds of joy along the way.

Friday, April 5

FUBAR LIVE

When: Doors: 7:00pm

Where: Highway 97 Brewing Co, 200 Ellis St

Why: Based on the characters from the Canadian cult classic, FUBAR, FUBAR Live brings non stop laughter, classic rock & metal tunes and audience interaction like no other show. We're going back to our roots: Improvised comedy LIVE. A white lie about a bonus leads Terry and Trish down a troublesome path of generosity and overspending that might just ruin their night. We got cold ones, a wild gift exchange with the audience, live Metal Karaoke, plenty of rock kicks AND a pre show meet and greet with the cast. Gifts, Given'r and Good times guaranteed. This is a 19+ event.
